No Change In School Boundaries

Macy Shopping Center In Campbell District

The regional shopping center projected for Stevens Creek Road which will include the Macy Department Store, Safeway and other valuable properties will remain in both the Campbell High School and Campbell Grammar School districts because of provisions established in AB-1 the School and Annexation bill, according to Assemblyman Brue Allen, author of the measure who was in Campbell and Cambrian Park yesterday. The properties which will substantially help to reduce the school district tax bases, will be in San Jose city limits, but the law did not permit San Jose, a chartered city, in annexing the area from changing its school district boundaries.

For this reason, Allen said, San Jose will never be able to take the new Camden high school out of the Campbell school districts.

Allen told the Campbell Press yesterday that he would take up with the Division of Highways the matter of having speed limits reduced on the San Jose-Los Gatos Road from Hamilton Avenue to Union avenue as advocated by the Campbell Chamber of Commerce and by the City Council. He said the Campbell avenue intersection needs some corrective action as a safety factor.

Allen appeared yesterday at the meeting of the Cambrian Park Kiwanis Club with his opponent, Michael diLeonardo, who discussed campaign issues.

Bill Young Talks About Gun Safety At Rotary Meeting

"Guns and Their Handling With Safety" was the subject discussed by William H. Young, guest speaker at the regular Monday luncheon of the Campbell Rotary Club held in the I. O. O. F. Hall.

Young's talk was based on the care and handling of guns and the necessity of teaching young people to care and handle their guns properly. He particularly stressed the fact that little children should be taught to never touch a gun.

After his talk, Young gave a demonstration of his marksmanship, using a portable backstop, by splitting with a single bullet, three cards placed on edge, shot the flame off a candle and turned the gun upside down and hit the traget.

Ben Strong introduced a new member he is sponsoring, Earl Stuart of Williams Road, a walnut grower and life long resident of this area.

Chairman of the day was Forrest Reese.

The pupil population of the Campbell Grammar schools continues to grow and today has reached 4559 pupils, an increase of approximately 500 over the total enrollment of one year ago, according to William C. Henley, district superintendent.

Double sessions are being conducted in four of the nine schools in the district. More than 300 students are today on a one half day session program.

PRUNE CROP OF 15,391 TONS SETS NEW RECORD AT DRYER

An all-time record was set Thursday at the end of the seasonal run at the Campbell Cooperative dehydrator when it was revealed that a total of 15,391 green tons of prunes had been processed, according to Herman Gerdts, plant manager and superintendent for the California Prune and Apricot Growers Association plant here. The yield is 2,391 tons greater than estimated.

The yield in 1953 was 12,146 ton and in 1952 it was 7,352 ton indicating there is no reversal in crop yield in the face of subdivision develpoments. Many orchardists dry their own crops. The plant here, the largest in the world, receives crops direct from orchards of members, dehydrates them in preparation for delivery to the California Prune and Apricot Plant where they are to be evaluated for quality and size. In the trade, Gerdts says, this is known as the "grading plant". There is no packaging or packing done here, but after grading they have this done at one of the company plants in San Jose.

Gerdts said that the size of the prune was smaller this year but its quality was less off grade. The size of the prune was due to the heavy yield, he said.

CAMPBELL IS BIRTHPLACE OF AMERICA'S FIRST CUB PACK

That the first Cub Pack in the United States was started in Campbell at the Congregational Church on North Central avenue was the statement of Dr. Corwin Olds, pastor, who has records to show it was founded by the Rev. J. H. Bennett who brought the idea with him from England.

During his seventeen years in the ministry here, Rev. Bennett made the scouting program of the Congregational Church an outstanding one. At one time there was an active Sea Scout Ship included in the activities.

Today boy scouts meet at the church each Tuesday, girl scouts meet each Wednesday, a cub den meets each Thursday afternoon, the DeMolay meets on the second and fourth Friday of each month while DeMolay mothers meet each fourth Thursday and on the last Friday of each month. Pack nine takes over. Besides these, the scout office holds a training school for new leaders every Fall. In earlier years the town library was housed in the church, which was organized in 1889.

Recently the church building was used for meetings of the Campbell Community Service Fund directors and solicitors.

The solid character of the Church has been evidenced by the fact that in its 65 years it has had only seven ministers, including the present one, Dr. Corwin Olds. Only two of the seven served short terms.

The founder and publisher of Popular Mechanics magazine was a son of the first minister and in 1923 he donated the large stained glass window which faces North Central Avenue. It is a memorial to his father, the Reverend William H. Wingate.

Many additions have been built on to the original structure until now it is not practicable to add more. Hence, with a rapidly growing membership in this expanding community, the Church plans to build new on its three acre W. Campbell Avenue location.

Architect's plans for the new Church are being drawn and will include the memorial windows of the present Church.

The Congregational Church will launch its "New Church" building fund canvass with the arrival, next Monday, of the Wells Organization, largest fund raising organization in the country. Actual construction of the new Church will depend on results of the forthcoming canvass.

FIRE HAZARD REMOVAL IS SOUGHT HERE

Elimination of fire hazards may be done as a feature of fire prevention week if dry weeds are removed and paper in garages is bundled properly, according to Campbell Fire Chief Jack Scott. Burning permits may be obtained at the fire department, the hours for burning being from 6 a. m. to noon Tuesday through Saturday and 6 a. m. to 6 p. m. on Sunday.

Campbell today has three paid firemen and the Chief, but it also has 27 volunteer firemen. The regular firemen are Fred E. Jones, William H. Morgan and Bruce Gammon, while volunteers are Walter Silberbauer, asst. Chief; Jack Chappell, Captain; Joe Heckler, Herb Power and Ross Nielsen, lieutenants; George Adamson, LeRoy Black, Malle Dorsett, Ray Gilpatrick, Harlan Johnson, Earl Kenney, Allen Landers, Joe and Sal Lipari, Otto Heckler, Harley Poore, Donald and Greg Rice, Elvert Weeks, S. A. Wirth, Jr., Clarence Pashote, Richard Dondin, Harry Story, Johnny Yerkovich, Ray Evara, Clyde Bough and Thurman Harris.

The department has three pieces of equipment, a 1000 gallon pumper, a 500 gallon pumper and a truck unit 200 rotor type pumper. The house men operate the equipment, while volunteers do the fire fighting including the resuscitator which is available to any citizen.

During fire prevention week films are being distributed for showing at schools and at the Campbell Theatre.

33,000 IN EAST OKLAHOMA GET RELIEF RATIONS

OKLAHOMA CITY — At least 33,000 persons are receiving emergency food relief in 23 eastern Oklahome counties today due to three years of drought. The winter months will bring the total to 60,000 state officials said Saturday.

"The people are facing economic disaster and the condition is getting worse", Czar Langston, research director said, adding "Hundreds of families are going hungry in eastern Oklahoma. They need clothing for the winter. Many children go to school without money for their lunches."

EDITORIAL

VOTE TODAY FOR SCHOOLS

Today is another election day calling for a favorable vote on a bond issue so that another school may be provided the Campbell school district and bring relief to many of the overcrowded classrooms. The proposed new school would be located within the city limits, and there is the sum of $350,000 in State funds available with which to build the school if the measure carries by the required two-thirds majority.

The additional funds from sale of bonds as needed would be used for needed additions to the Dover, Quito, Cypress and Cherry Lane schools in particular. The bonds would not all be sold at one time, but as needed over a period of years, and the tax rate change would cost the average home owner less than one cent per day.

The main point in considering a favorable vote on this issue is that unless it carries, the district stands to lose the $350,000 set aside by the state for the Monroe school, in which case also there will be no immediate relief to the crowded school conditions. The enrollment jump this year is 500, and next year there will be 500 more, so there is nothing to gain by voting down the measure and there is $350,000 to lose if rejected.

OIL CONSERVATION PLAN

One of these days, and the sooner the better, California is going to have to do something about its conservation of oil and not continue to let deposits be half drawn because poachers bite away at the gas and salt water supplies. Too many wells near a deposit will do this, and so far California has made the supply a free-for-all race for those with the equipment, the capital and the property rights.

This was the substance of a talk given Monday night at Los Gatos before a group of business and professional men. We were there, but didn't get all the technical information. Most other oil producing states have what is termed unit operation or unitization laws so that separately-owned parcels of land are integrated into a single operating unit. The properties operate as though owned by a single operator. That affords a proper balance of gas and salt water so the oil can be surface pressurized and not dissipated into pockets.

This may sound as if special interests are agitating for some sort of corrective legislation, but the truth of the matter is that oil in the ground is as much a part of our natural resources as is the timber in the forests, precious metals in the hills, water in the rivers and other properties. The supply of some of these, including oil, is exhaustible, and it is subject to waste if not properly pumped. There is not too much of it remaining under the soil in California, so it might be wise to conserve the supply by utilizing a unit-drilling plan like they do in other states. After all, oil is really big business in California; and once it is gone, it will not return—and once it is pocketed by lack of gas, it may then become impractical to redrill for.

OVER THE TOP

The first regularly scheduled flight from California to Europe via the North Pole is set for November 15. On that date, a few minutes after midnight, a Scandinavian Airlines plane will take off from Los Angeles and head northward toward Winnipeg, Canada, the first of two stops on the 5800-mile trip which will take 22½ hours. The other stop enroute is the Bluie West 8 airfield in Greenland. Copenhagen, Denmark, will be terminal point. The "over the top" route will save at least 4½ hours traveling time as compared to the same journey via New York. If you're interested in going to Europe by this new route, the round trip fare is $1,034.50 and in these days of modern travel you can even have a bank finance your trip and you can repay the loan in small installments when you return. You can make your return trip through New York for $20 additional. The planes will accomodate 32 passengers and will run on a two-a-week schedule. The North Pole, once the "end of the world," now seems destined to become but another point of interest to air travelers.

ADVERTISING — THE LIFE OF A TOWN

"No business man in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean you should have a whole, half or quarter page ad in each issue of the paper, but your name and business should be mentioned, if you do not use more than a two-line space.

"A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town by looking at the paper. This is the best possible town advertising. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the town.

"The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to town, but refuses to advertise his own, is not a valuable addition to any town. The life of any town depends on the live, wide-awake and liberal advertising man." (American Bankers' Magazine.)

WE OFTEN WONDER

Why does a man run for political office? We put that question to one of the Assembly candidates the other night at a political gathering, and he said he had been 'drafted'. He also remarked that his net income for the year derived from his office would only be in the neighborhood of $1500, after deducting campaign expenses. No wonder it's difficult to get the right men for the jobs!

Senator Kuchel Favors Smog Aid From Congress

SAN JOSE— Senator Kuchel predicted at San Jose last Wednesday that "positive action" will be taken by the U. S. Congress in 1955 on the problem of "smog."

Answering a press conference question, Kuchel said he will continue to work on legislation "to enable the Federal government to make a contribution towards solving a major health problem of California."

Kuchel was author of a Senate bill last Spring which would have granted speedy depreciation for Federal tax purposes of the cost of anti-smog equipment installed by factories. Actually, he said, such a law would not cost the U. S. Treasury "a single penny in the long run." Approval on the bill was withheld by the Senate despite a favorable Committee recommendation.

Subsequently the House of Representatives failed to pass Kuchel's Senate-approved bill to finance a Federal investigation of smog and to grant FHA loans on equipment. However, at the request of Kuchel and Senator Capehart of Indiana, President Eisenhower directed Health, Education and Welfare Seccretary Oveta Cupl Hobby to conduct preliminary studies as the basis for possible legislation in 1955.

Kuchel predicted the fact smog is becoming a steadily growing problem in many States will be a factor in favorable Congressional action next year.

He was told here that smog is an increasing plague and has resulted in widespread damage to the tree and flower nursery business, a major enterprise in Alameda and Contra Costa Counties. The fumes are developed by growing local industrialization, but the major source is believed to be factories operatinng farther north on San Francisco Bay.

SANTA CLARA COUNTY GAINS INDUSTRIALLY

Industrially expanding Santa Clara County, which last year ranked eighth among Califronia counties in assessed valuation, vaulted past and displaced Fresno County in the seventh position among the top ten counties assesed valuation-wise for 1954-55, the Santa Clara County Taxpayers' Association reports.

Santa Clara County was the only county of last year's first ten to gain a position and no newcomers appear on the list.

Trailing Fresno County last year by $33,000,000 Santa Clara County's current $502,583,500 assessed valuation tops Fresno County by a little over $11,000,000 for the 1954-55 year.

This county was able to overtake the previous seventh ranked county because of a 12.22% rate of increase in assessed valuation which led all fifty-eight counties although followed closely by Orange County which holds the fifth spot with 12.11% and San Diego County with 11.11%.This county is now only $18,000,000 behind the sixth slot held by Kern County.

San Diego County in fourth place drew within $17,000,000 of Alameda County which holds the third position.

San Francisco, Alameda and Fresno Counties fared the worst in percentage increase among the top ten with 1.29, 3.52 and 1.91 percentage increases respectively.

Creedon Steps Out Of Field As Samish Successor

Republican Assemblyman Daniel Creedon of San Mateo today denied any offer and said he could not accept the job as lobbyist for the California Brewers' institute.

"I have not been offered the lobbying job," Creedon announced. "Were the job offered I couldn't accept it now. I'm in a runoff race with a Democrat and I have a loyalty to the Republican Party. If I accepted now, the Democrat would win by default and that can't be allowed."

Today a later report is that Creedon accepted the job and would continue in the campaign. If elected he would resign in which case a special election would have to be called.

Creedon noted that his San Mateo and San Francisco law firm of Hession, Robb & Creedon had been offered legal work from the institute. But Creedon said the status of the lobbying job had not been determined.

The brewers' institute has been searching for a successor to Arthur H. Samish, at one time described as the secret boss of California. But James G. Hamilton, institute president, said the industry has no desire to hire another "boss lobbyist" for the $30,000 a year job.

Harvest Theme At Church Dinner

A turkey dinner with all the trimmings was given last Wednesday evening by the combined womens' Guilds of the Congregational Church. Choir members and Sunday School teachers were guests of honor.

Decor for the occasion was done entirely by Mrs. R. A. Edwards, using harvest time for her theme. The lace covered banquet tables held large straw cornucopias spilling fruit of the fields on one side and fruits of the orchards and vineyards on the opposite, converging on a center table holding golden fruit and a pot of gold which represented the Santa Clara Valley.

After dinner, Mrs. Corwin Olds entertained the group with a vocal selection which was followed by a community sing of favorite old songs.

THELMA BRAMLEY, CALVIN ROLL, TEACHERS HERE, ARE MARRIED

The Chapel of Centella Methodist Church in San Jose was the site chosen by Thelma Bramley for her marriage to Calvin Roll, last Friday evening. Before an altar appointed with white and red gladioli, the Reverend P. Elmer Smith performed the ceremony. Both the bride and bridegroom are teachers in the Campbell School.

For her wedding, the bride donned a cocktail length aqua crystalene gown styled with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. Her small white velvet hat was embroidered with steel-cut beads and rhiinestones. An orchid, from which fell white satin streamers, marked the white Bible she carried.

She was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, H. B. Knowles.

Matron of Honor, and only attendant, was Mrs: C. Ben Ziegler who wore a ruby red crystalene gown and carried a French bouquet of baby roses and forget-me-nots.

C. Ben Ziegler performed the duties of best man.

Mrs. Julia Gray, mother of the bride, wore a gown of blue crepe with matching accessories and pinned on a white orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride for the many friends who wished them well. A three tier wedding cake was centered on a table decorated with white and red gladioli.

The new Mrs. Roll is the daughter of Mrs. Julia Gray of Alameda, and sister of Mrs. Bonnie Fleming of Alameda, Mrs. H. B. Knowles of Hayward and Mr. Harvey Gray of Philadelphia. She is a graduate of San Jose State College and a member of Kappa Delta Pi and Delta Nu Theta Sororities and was District Deputy for Job's Daughters. At the present time she is a teacher at the Campbell Grammar School.

Calvin Roll is the son of Andrew J. Roll of Santa Clara. His twin sisters are Mrs. Milton Croal of Los Gatos and Mrs. Kenneth Taylor of Santa Clara. He is a graduate of San Jose State College and Stanford University, member of Kappa Delta Pi, past president of the Campbell Teachers' Association and State Council of California State Teachers Association. He is now a teacher of the Campbell Grammar School.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. R. B. Williams of Boonville, daughter of Mrs. Roll, two nieces, Mrs. Allene Williams of Alameda and Norma Vierra of San Leandro; and two aunts, Mrs. Mary Gray of Alameda and Mrs. Ruby Shelby of Oakland.

CAMPBELL MAN HURT IN AUTO COLLISION

A Campbell man sustained minor injuries early Saturday morning following a two-car collision on Winchester Road near West Parr Avenue. Jerry L. Johnstone of 871 Audrey Avenue was taken to the San Jose hospital by ambulance after his car collided with another car.

Correction

BRUCE ALLEN IN FAVOR OF BETTER ROADS THIS AREA

About 75 of Assemblyman Bruce Allen's campaign workers heard the incumbent candidate discuss his work to insure improved traffic safety and better roads for this district at last Tuesday night's barbecue-rally held at the "Lions Den" in San Jose.

Recent installation of traffic signals and paving improvements at the Hamilton Ave. and San Jose-Los Gatos road intersection were cited by Allen as part of his efforts. He also added, that upon his request, State Highway Engineer G. T. McCoy has promised the same safety measures will be taken at the intersection of the San Jose-Los Gatos Road with Union and Moorpark Avenues.

Campbell residents attending the campaign "kick-off' included Major H. E. Lillingston, Emerson "Doc" Arends, Laurance Hill, Edward Tablak, and Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Litynsky.

STUDENT COUNCIL WILL DRAW NEW SCHOOL CONSTITUTION

Reorganization plans of the Student Council at Campbell Union High School are under way today which will set up a model for student government at the new Camden High School, opening next Fall and adjust its scope to today's enrollment of 2000 at the present school. The original constitution,, written in 1942 was planned for a student enrollment of 450 and provided for eleven commissions.

The Constitution Revision committee, headed by Dick Kolte, meets every Tuesday night. When revision is completed next semester, freshmen who are to attend Camden High School next year as sophomores will then start to organize their own student government.

The Campbell Student government this year approved a budget of $14,000. Among matters it considers are rates for admission charges to various school events and how sporting events an dances are to be conducted. School awards are made through the Awards commission.

George Kemp, faculty advisor, said yesterday, "I'm sure that we have an outstanding student council which is as good as any we have ever had. I feel that it will perform a real service helping our new high school organize its student government on the firm foundation already established."

The preamble of the present constitution states ". . . in order to govern ourselves democratically and efficiently, we will learn and practice the principles of competent leadership and good citizenship, promote extra-curricular activities, and derive the maximum value from our association with each other."

Every administrative class in the school today has an elected council member attending Tuesday afternoon meetings, reporting back to their respective English, Orientation, history and other classes on Wednesdays. Seven of the eight on the council are also members of the California Scholarship Federation, the four boys on the council also being regulars on the 1954 Varsity football team. President Tony Schraub and Pat Means, secretary were recent school representatives to Boys' State and Girls' State at Sacramento.

Carole Foster, student manager, heads the 18 important school commissions including Art, Awards, Boys' Athletics, Drama, Finance, Girls' Athletics, Literary Affairs, Music, Noontime Activities, Photography, Publicity, Records, Scholarship, School Affairs, Social Affairs, Spirit, Supply and Utilities.

There are 30 members on the Social Affairs Commission function of which relate to all dances, dinners and other social events. They work with the art commission on decorations, plan publicity, care for coatrooms, sell refreshments, engage the band and see that premises are cleaned after the affair. This is the work of but one of the 18 commissions, Kemp points out.

CAMPBELL BUCS PLAY SANTA CRUZ FRIDAY NIGHT

By Bob Olson

Jim Muir's Bucs draw another bye this week, playing a second exhibition tilt at Santa Cruz while all other SCVAL member schools start the conference season in earnest tomorrow. Campbell High is expected to accomplish three missions in the Surf City tomorrow night: (1) defeat a Santa Cruz eleven which looked ragged losing to Santa Clara last week (2) hang on to the football—after fumbling four times and losing the ball to Castlemont last Friday in Oakland; and (3) build a new offense around quarterback Bob Sutton, fullback Richard Callaway, and offensive left-half Richard Buck. Campbell offense seemed ragged and uncoordinated Friday in the season-opener which the Bucs lost 8-0. The Bucs own forward wall seemed impregnable as they held the heavier and more experienced Castlemonts scoreless for three quarters. Early in the final period what should have been a punt turned out to be a poorly centered pass over the quarterback's head out of the end zone which gave Castlemont two points. The Bucs drove to the twelve yard line, but fumbled for the first of four important miscues. Later they reached the fourteen only to be stopped on downs, and in the fourth quarter made it back to the Castlemont twenty-four, but here Castlemont took the ball back to score six points traveling 76 yards in less than three of the remaining minutes.

Meanwhile, Santa Cruz, their opponent of tomorrow night, was being chased all over Townsend Field by what looks to be the strongest Santa Clara eleven of the past decade. The Surfmen scored twice in a 25-12 rout at the hands of the Santa Clarans, whose Fullback Fred Blanci already looks like all-SVAL. He not only makes the touchdowns for the Panthers; he kicks all their conversions as well! Tomorrow the Campbell pass defense should have a real test, and the Buc line will have to stop Tom Silva and Jack Spurlock. The local eleven will open its conference season a week from tomorrow night at Mountain View.

The results of other games tomorrow night should be interesting. The Los Gatos-Santa Clara tilt pits two offensive giants against each other in what might well be the conference clincher as well as opener. Los Gatos squeaked by a strong Menlo-Atherton eleven 14-12 thanks to their ability to convert after TD's, but it is interesting to note that they gave their opponents a handicap of 12 big points before turning Ogden loose for a twenty-six yard scamper on a quarterback keep play. Later in the game the Cats recovered a fumble on the thirty-four and they roared to the goal again in 10 plays with smooth passer, Terry Ogden heaving to gluefingered Ken Stryker for the big TD. Whoever wins this one may be conference champ.

Fremont looked so strong in toppling Willow Glen 20-7 last week that they should be a shoo-in over a green and weak Washington eleven at Centerville. But the James Lick Comets proved such a surprise at San Jose Stadium when they almost won out over a powerful San Jose High team, that they must be favored over Mountain View, who has yet to play a 1954 contest. The Comets had 2500 fans buzzing Friday night as they completely outplayed San Jose in the second half getting over their first half fumbleitis. Darrell Danker and Jack Rudd's clever ball handling had Lick on the San Jose seventeen, still driving as the final gun sounded. As we get into the big games, the SCVAL seems much more evenly balanced than the last two years; Campbell has a lot more than Fremont to worry about this year!

CAMPBELL FUTURE FARMERS TO EXHIBIT AT GRAND NATIONAL SHOW

By Bob Olson

Plans are being made today at the Campbell Union High School for participation in the annual Grand National Livestock Exhibition at the Cow Palace starting October 29, with instructors Al Smith and Arthur Davis in charge of the local group of participants.

John Bamford one of the FFA members here, expects to enter two steers which he recently purchased from money earned this summer at the Mayfair Dried Fruit plant.

There has been great concern at the hog barn pens where four sows are "expecting" and room must be made for some thirty squealing pigs. The boys call it the "maternity" barn. The female is a gilt before producting her first litter of pigs and then she becomes a sow.

If anyone wonders what Secondary Education means to today's young people, he should talk things over with a Future Farmer. No high school boy has more "to show" for his study and hard work according to administrators. The school farm is out on the new high school site off Camden Avenue. Here in Campbell, are the classrooms where tomorrow's agriculturists do as much book work as any English student. These students read, write, and discuss farming and then they go out and put into practice the skills elaborated on the printed page and in classroom skull sessions.

The big adjoining Farm Mechanics room is one of the cleanest shops in the whole valley. Farm Mechanics instructor Art Davis believes that "There's a place for everything; everything must be in its place." Welding helmets are on the proper rack, the parts of the mowing machine under repair are in "what comes first" order, and the part from the tractor being overhauled right where the farmer-mechanic will expect to find it in the morning. Here the boys weld cast iron and mild steel, build trailers for transporting livestock, and construct all kinds of feeders.

Tomorrow's farmers, Bill Williams, Richard Rice, Frank Bartoli, Bob Lightfoot, Bob Alveres, Ray Plumer, and Gary Steindorf, know how to fix a part as well as how to drive stakes, raise fruit, weed pod-vegetables, and fatten their beef cattle for market. In the recent County Fair awards, local Future Farmers Frank Maltos, Marvin Hughes, and Marvin Armstrong were one, two, three in the whole county for their ability to repair farm equipment.

These first three weeks of school, members heard about farm conditions on a countrywide basis. Teacher Al Smith toured thirty-three states during the three month vacation period, and many of his lectures lately have been of the Inside U. S. A. variety. Smith bought a new Ford pickup in Detroit and then toured the whole East and South. He swam at Daytona Beach, caught the jazz bands in New Orleans, saw baseball games in New York City, and visited the national shrines in Washington, D. C. His reaction to Cleveland, Buffalo, Albany, Richmond, or Orlando remains about the same, "It's good for all of us to tour the country as I did just to assure yourself that we've got everything they've got and more—right here at home in California!"

Girls' Sports Plan Fall Activities

The Campbell High Girls' Sports Activtities, under the direction of Sylvia Wilson, Sports Commissioner, and Mrs. Weltzen, and Miss Lathrop, the advisors, have planned their activity schedule for the fall. The activities are hockey, tennis,. swimming, basketball, volleyball, and finally soft ball in that order.

Since Girls' Sports meets every day, during 6th period, instead of twice a week, as during last year, there is more participation and as a result, there should be better games.

There were several outstanding teams last year, and this year's teams are expected to be as good, if not better.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

How God's infinite love for man redeems man from sin by destroying sin and revealing man's divine, sinless nature, will be explained at Christian Science services Sunday. The Lesson-Sermon is entitled "Everlasting Punishment."

Among the passages from the Bible will be read the story of the Prodigal Son, including his forgiveness and his welcome back to his father's house, as told in Chapter 15 of St. Luke's gospel.

The following selection on the overcoming of sin will be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (327:9-13):

"Evil is sometimes a man's highest conception of right, until his grasp on good grows stronger. Then he loses pleasure in wickedness, and it becomes his torment. The way to escape misery of sin is to cease sinning. There s no other way."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (130:7): "Let Israel hope in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption."

Explorer Crew Sees Burned Area

The Explorer Crew of Troop 28 spent the afternoon on Conservation at a burned-over area above Lexington. Previously the Explorers had visited the area making measurements on control stakes, building check dams and observing extent of fire damage.

This trip showed results of a year's time in erosion, extent of grass coverage and new growth put out by brush and trees. The dams built had all been effective in stopping debris and silt from washing farther down, so new dams were built to determine amount of soil movement this coming winter.

Participating were: Jerry Henley, Gene Andres, Art Hill, Don Brown, Larry Helfter and Ken Robison, advisor.

OUR DEMOCRACY — by Mat

"In God we trust"

THIS AFFIRMATION OF FAITH HAS COME DOWN TO US THROUGH THE OLD TESTAMENT, THE NEW TESTAMENT, OUR PARENTS' TEACHINGS, OUR NATIONAL ANTHEM—AND EVEN ON OUR COINS.

THE FIRST APPEARANCE OF THE MOTTO ON OUR COINS WAS ON A BRONZE TWO-CENT PIECE MINTED IN 1864 IN PHILADELPHIA. NOW OUR GOVERNMENT HAS ISSUED ITS FIRST REGULAR STAMP PROCLAIMING TO THE WORLD "IN GOD WE TRUST." IT IS AN EIGHT-CENT STAMP, USED PRINCIPALLY FOR INTERNATIONAL MAIL, AND SERVES AS ANOTHER REMINDER OF THE FAITH ON WHICH OUR DEMOCRACY WAS FOUNDED.

SENATOR THOMPSON IS FIGHTING FOR COLLEGE ENROLLMENT CEILING

Senator John F. "Jack" Thompson promised today that he would continue his fight to raise the enrollment ceiling at San Jose State College.

"I am convinced that we of Santa Clara County must show the State Department of Education strong loyal support of the college before we'll get the ball rolling in the right direction," Thompson declared.

It was Thompson who "broke" the Strayer report which set an unofficial ceiling of 6000 full-time students at San Jose State, or, translated into actual terms, between 7000 and 8000 full-time and part-time students.

"It was most unfortunate that the Department of Education didn't realize this limit was in adequate," he added, "because it failed to submit a higher recommendation for the Governor's budget."

Thompson indicated that Governor Goodwin J. Knight, who had just taken office, was highly cooperative.

"Inasmuch as the budget, drafted during the administration of Governor Earl Warren, had already been printed, Knight said he could not change it," Thompson related. "But Knight assured me that if the ceiling was raised to 7000 he would not oppose it."

It was Thompson who went before the State Senate Finance Committee to make a special plea for boosting the San Jose State ceiling.

Senator James J. McBride of Ventura County made the motion to raise the limit to 7000. There was no second. And then Senator Nelson Dilworth successfully moved that the ceiling be set at 6400 instead of 6000.

"It was their belief, and not mine," Thompson commented, "that with the shortage of State money San Jose State could get by for another year."

He said that several months ago he had urged the Senate Committee on Education to meet in San Jose for hearings ond the State college. The committee has tentatively scheduled meetings here on November 4 and5.

"There must be a strong presentation to that committee from us here in Santa Clara County", Thompson asserted. "Members of the committee will also have an opportunity to see San Jose State College and see its problems firthand."

The State Senator explained that the State college district not only includes Santa Clara County but also Alameda, San Mateo, Santa Cruz and San Benito Counties. For this reason, State legislators from these areas will be invited to spend a day at San Jose State College during the hearings.

"With the co-operation of all concerned," Thompson concluded, "we should have no difficulties in raising the college budget to the desired amount, thus assuring the best possible education for our younger citizens."

NEW HISTORY CLUB PLANS VARIED ACTIVITIES HERE

Campbell high school now has thirty-three successful clubs in operation, each having at least ten student members and one faculty advisor. Newest to join the list is the history club which held its initial meeting last Friday during both lunch hours at the high school. It already has 23 members. Under the leadership of temporary chairman, Jo Weidner, they appointed three committees and voted to meet twice a month. One group will draw up a permanent history club constitution, another will provide refreshments at every conclave and the third will arrange a theater and speaker schedule.

The club members will meet every other Wednesday in Room 41 at the high school, beginning October 13th. Once a month on a theater date they will view one of the new history films, then discuss its points at a later meeting. A tour to the Hoover Memorial Tower, renowned as number one War Document Museum in the Country, is planned, as well as the library and newly-reopened Greek museum on the Stanford University Campus. They are to participate in debates and history-group discussions with other young people meeting in a similar history club at San Jose State College. Tentative plans are being made for a campus tour of the University of California at Berkeley to meet Dr. John D. Hicks, nationwide authority, and head of the U. C. history department.

Next Wednesday night there is to be an informal talk by Eugenio Gamez, Spanish teacher at the high school, who toured Europe this past Summer. Gamez has some interesting opinions in regard to the swift-changing governments of the French and the trading-problems of the British. Gamez toured Parliament buildings while in London. He will endeavor to answer the question, "What's going to happen in Greece?" Gamez will bring along some souvenirs collected on his airflight to the continent including some momentos of the bullfighting in Spain and an authentic Castilian riding habit.

In the meantime the blaze had spread up the wall. The place had been leased to Greco and Mazzeo by Joe La Scola.

Post Office Ready With Saving Stamp For Schools Here

With the opening of another school year, local post offices are prepared for a brisk demand for United States Saving Stamps by thrifty students and parents.

Postmaster Ira H. Grim said that during the 1953-54 school year, local post offices sold $2,500 in U. S. Savings Stamps, nearly all of which went to school children participating in the Treasury-sponsored School Savings program. "There were some parents, also", Grim pointed out, "Who purchased Stamps regularly for themselves and their small children not yet in school."

Stamp albums will be furnished free by local post offices to anyone desiring them. When these are filled, they may then be exchanged at a bank or other financial institution for a United States Series E Savings Bond.

Grim said that plans are now being made by school administrators, teachers, and volunteer members of the county savings bonds committee, to expand student participation in the Treasury-sponsored School Savings program during the ensuing year.

SHERIFF CANDIDATES IN DEBATE ON ISSUES AT CAMBRIAN MEETING

The two candidates in the race for sheriff of Santa Clara County squared off Tuesday night in a verbal battle before members of the Cambrian Park Improvement Association in the Parker School auditorium.

Illegal pin ball machines took the brunt of the verbiage both Melvin Hawley and William H. Young, agreeing that the machines will be confiscated if brought to either's attention when elected.

Hawley, an attorney, charged that tavern owners with pin ball machines are putting up money for his opponent's campaign. Young in rebuttal said that pinball machines are vicious devices and some 300 places have them and that many men would have to be assigned to check each machine, but a sheriff with a strong arm who can make these people fear him will control their use of illegal machines. Young said he could not afford the cost of billboard ads and said most of his campaign advertising is being paid for by groups such as the William Young Veterans Committee and the Womens Voters Council". Hawley said that his campaign funds were from his own pocket.

Dope traffic, juvenile delinquency and improved administration of the sheriff office were cited by Young as needs which he would take care of if elected.

Hawley pointed out that the man elected sheriff should lead the crusade for a new jail.

Health Program Is School Topic

An outline on the health program provided for schools was the subject of a talk given by Dr. Elgot Nelson of the County Health Department at the regular monthly meeting of St. Lucy's Mothers Guild, held at the school Wednesday, October 5th. Mrs. Charles Frick, president, conducted the meeting.

Plans were completed for the Harvest Ball to be held October 23rd at the San Jose Skeet and Gun Club. Tickets may be obtained by calling Mrs. Ren Orsi, ticket chairman.

Also under discussion were plans for maintaining a nursery at the Church so small children could be cared for while parents attended Mass.

At the close of the meeting Father Dennis Kennelly gave a short talk on the desirability of family attendance at Mass.

Refreshments were served by the 4th grade mothers
